

NEWS FROM THE PARISHES

BUSCOT

The Fellowship of St. Birinus was established in 2009 by Colin, Bishop of Dorchester to honour people who have given exceptional service to their church and community over a number of years, and each year incumbents are invited to nominate someone in their parishes for this award. This year I nominated Fred Iles, in recognition of his exceptional service to St. Mary's Buscot, his faithful and diligent work as churchwarden from 2004 to 2011 and for his daily care of the church and its many visitors over many years. I presented the Award to Fred on behalf of Bishop Colin at the Parish Communion service on February 19th, at which many of Fred's family and friends were present (see photo).

COLESHILL

In the first half of this year there will have been no less than six baptisms at All Saints Coleshill, beginning on Palm Sunday: of Edward and Thomas Goddard (twin boys of Hannah and James, who were married in the church five years ago), of Maisie Yates and her uncle and godparent Justin Yates later in April, of Ava Floyd at the end of May and Oscar Lack early in June. It has been a great pleasure to welcome the families to our church and to talk to them about the significance of baptism: as a sign of turning away from darkness towards the light of Christ, as an important milestone in our spiritual journey through life, and as a sign of our becoming a member of the world-wide church family. We hold them in our prayers.

EATON HASTINGS

All four churchyards of the Badbury churches have been a pleasure to see this Spring, but the carpet of primroses at Eaton Hastings has been the most extensive (see photo). This is reminder that our churchyards are a wonderful habitat for flowers, birds and insects, as well as the place where departed forbears are laid to rest – these are all consecrated gardens which date back to early mediaeval times.

GREAT COXWELL

Oxfordshire Arts Weeks feature in many of our local villages, but Great Coxwell (as a village) has organised a series of displays of the work of local artists throughout the village, and this year will take place over the two weekends of May 6th and 7th and May 13th and 14th. Two of the artists (Sam Thulin and Valentina Calitoiu) are active members of St. Giles Church. Work includes painting, stone carving, ceramics, woodworking, handmade books, jewellery and mosaics, including demonstrations. There will be coffees, lunches and teas in the Reading Room, a concert at Stonevale and a plant sale at the church. All are warmly invited to come.

LETTER FROM THE VICARAGE

Shortly before Easter I took some time away from parish work and went on a six-day retreat staying in a convent guest house next to the mediaeval church of St. Julian in Norwich. On the south side of the church, there is a chapel which is built on the foundations of the room where the great mediaeval spiritual writer Julian of Norwich chose to be confined as an anchoress, and where she wrote her classic work of literature Revelations of Divine Love, which is the first surviving book in English written by a woman. Much of Mother Julian's writing is ahead of its time, and it has profound insights into the love of God, and the way that it is expressed. Julian's writings have always attracted me and on my retreat I was privileged to be able to attend services in the very place where she lived and wrote.

It was a valuable opportunity to re-charge my batteries, both spiritual and physical, and it gave me quality time for reading, praying, walking and cycling, so that at the end of the time my body, mind and spirit felt to be in a better equilibrium. I think we are all likely to benefit from taking time away from our daily round, in order to refresh ourselves. Free of many of the distractions of the working week, I found that I was able to see things more clearly, to offer my prayers to God more freely, and to discern that which is of true value in life more readily.

People make their way to the shrine of Julian of Norwich in a similar way that they travel, for example, to the shrine of the Blessed Virgin Mary at Walsingham, or to Iona with its associations with Celtic saints such as Aidan and Columba. People have long gone on pilgrimage journeys to enrich their spiritual lives; and holy places, associated with men and women of exemplary spirituality and goodness, have long given us a focus and a sign-post for our life's journey.

Pilgrimages have the power to nurture and sustain our inner life. All we need is a pilgrim spirit, a recognition that life is a journey, coming from God and returning to God, and that we walk in the company of Jesus Christ and those who follow him. If we look at life in this way, we will see that the journey and the destination are inseparable.

With warmest good wishes,
from your friend and vicar,
David
